Our Vocal Music Department

Directors

Dr. Brandon L. Moss (Producer) is Vocal Music Director at Upper Arlington High School, where he directs three choirs and teaches IB Music, Music Theory, and Beethoven to Beatles. Prior to this, he served for many years as Director of Choirs at Central Crossing High School in Grove City. Now in his 20th year of teaching, he has directed choirs to numerous accolades including superior ratings at adjudicated events, competition wins, and invited performances at the Ohio Music Education Association Conference. In 2023, he was named the Columbus Symphony Secondary Music Educator of the Year.

Dr. Moss is also Director of Music at First Unitarian Universalist Church of Columbus, where he has served for 14 years. An active conductor, adjudicator, and clinician, he has directed, assistant-directed, and worked with several other community, school, and church choirs in Central Ohio. Dr. Moss is a past president of the Ohio Choral Directors Association and has also served OMEA as District 15 President and the All-State Choir Chair in 2013 and 2018. As a performer, he often sings as a tenor soloist and chorister in Central Ohio.

He has directed, produced, and music-directed many musical theatre productions, including Beauty and the Beast, 42nd Street, The Boy Friend, Thoroughly Modern Millie, Tarzan, Little Shop of Horrors, Guys and Dolls, Catch Me If You Can, and The Sound of Music. Dr. Moss holds the Doctor of Musical Arts degree in Conducting from The Ohio State University, Masters' degrees from OSU and Drexel University, and the Bachelor of Music Education degree from Otterbein University.

David Monseur has been on the UA Vocal Music faculty since 2001 and serves as the Director of the UAHS Camerata. Previously, he taught at The Ohio State University, Otterbein University, and Grandview Heights High School. He is a proud recipient of the UA Golden Apple Award and Hastings Teacher of the Year. His vocal arrangements have been performed by choirs across the United States, as well as Canada, Germany, Great Britain, Australia, and Iceland.

David holds a PhD in Music Education from The Ohio State University and a Masters of Music from Westminster Choir College. He has conducted internationally in England, Wales, Italy, and Canada. He has collaborated with such arts organizations as the Columbus Symphony Orchestra, Opera Columbus, Ballet Met, and the Columbus Jazz Arts Group and performed with renowned artists Leonard Bernstein, Zubin Mehta, Renee Fleming, and Gian Carlo Menotti. He has presented his research on inclusive education for The National Association of Multicultural Education, the Ohio Music Education Association, Ohio State University and Columbus City Schools.

Our Vocal Music Department

Directors

Amy Leacock (Music Director) graduated from BGSU with a degree in vocal music education and is a director and accompanist for the UAHS choral department. She is a certified adjudicator through the Ohio Music Education Association. She is currently the assistant director of the Scioto Valley Chorus and was the baritone of the 2009 International Championship Sweet Adeline quartet Moxie Ladies! She sang jingles and commercials in Toledo for five years; the old WNCI jingles were sung by her group. Ms. Leacock's musical theater experiences include: stage director, music director, choreographer, pit player, pit director, and actress in countless musicals. She runs a Musical Theatre camp in the summer at Muskingum University. She and her husband Chris are the proud parents of two daughters, McKenzie and Ava.

FROM THE ADMINISTRATION

CAPTIVATING PERFORMANCES!

The tradition of excellence that makes UA so exceptional is exemplified in the challenging and creative work of our Vocal Music Department. The discipline and talents of our vocalists and directors create inspiring music year after year. Thank you to all who support this outstanding arts program – parents, neighbors, and the Vocal Music Boosters!

The Upper Arlington community is on board for another year of outstanding vocal music performances. UA Schools is a national leader in education and is committed to providing world-class educational opportunities for all students. Our vocal music program enhances the lessons learned inside the classroom with a variety of music opportunities, allowing students to explore their passions for the arts.

Dr. Robert Hunt
Superintendent

A DESTINATION FOR EXCELLENCE

UA's vocal music program is making its mark as one of the premiere high school arts programs in central Ohio. Bravo to the dedicated students who pursue musical excellence here at UA and to the directors who develop the high level of learning and performing opportunities for them.
